VOLUME XXX. NUMBER 41.

MARK doesn't seem to be cutting as much of a figure in the United States Senate as he did in the boodle campaign last fall.

WHY not abolish the State Senate in future sessions of the Legislature? Missouri would be big winner, if this could have been done long years ago.

MAJ. MCKINLEY is appointing none but straight-out Republicans to office. The cuckoo crowd will get no pie for their treachery to Democracy in the late campaign.

LOGAN CARLISLE, son of John G., has been summarily dismissed from the Treasury Department. Logan's playing cuckoo did him little good with the McKinley crew.

MR. MCKINLEY expects to sign the new high tariff bill next month. The Republican party is endeavoring to repay the trusts for the campaign contributions last fall.

THE insurgents in Cuba have just about won their freedom. Active operations have been suspended and the indications now are that Spain will soon come to terms.

THE Dingley tariff bill, framed for the special benefit of the trusts, passed the Republican House with a whoop last week. The measure will hardly have such an easy time in the Senate but will very likely pass that body, too, in due time.

WAITING for the prosperity that follows the restoration of confidence is a mighty tiresome business. But our Republicans friends still assure us, just as they did last fall, that the prosperity is just "over there."

THE Dingley tariff bill carries little comfort to the laboring man, but takes especial care of the interests of the trusts. The Republican party is not manifesting as much interest in the laboring man now as it was last fall.

THE REGISTER is very much inclined to doubt the wisdom of Gov. Stephens in vetoing the "note assessment" bill passed by the Legislature. In our opinion any measure that would tend to make the wealthy people of the State bear their just portion of the taxes, should receive hearty support.

THE Republican leaders say that the enactment of the tariff bill at present being discussed in Congress will make the country prosperous and happy. But these same leaders told us last fall that prosperity would come with a bound just as soon as the fact of McKinley's election was established. Republican leaders are free and generous in their promises.

CHICAGO, the giant of the West, has returned to the fold and Tuesday elected a Democratic mayor by a majority of 75,000 votes. Young Carter Harrison will preside over the destinies of the Illinois metropolis during the next two years. Grand old Chicago! Being the empire city of the west she sees the wisdom in being in accord with western ideas.

THE city of Cincinnati, that last fall gave a majority of twenty thousand for McKinley, Monday elected a Democratic mayor by a majority of over seven thousand votes. Are we to infer from this that the people of the metropolis of the Buckeye State are already tired of the McKinley prosperity that was to follow his election? They are quick to see the error of their ways.

A MEETING of the Southeast Missouri Press Association will be held at Charleston this month. Bro. Hafner, of the Scott County Newsboy, says he will attend, but, as the railroad company no longer provides him with free transportation he may be a little late in getting in. Just about the present time, Bro. Hafner, a canoe would be of more service in reaching Charleston from your county than a railroad ticket, wouldn't it?

HAS Bro. Bell of the Potosi Independent been able to learn what has become of the resignation of John L. Thomas, Attorney General for the Post Office Department, which we were assured would be duly forwarded to his superior officer on March 4th? Maybe the document has been pigeonholed, until Maj. McKinley can be informed of the faithful work John L. did for the gold standard in the cuckoo campaign last fall.

THE reports from Washington are that the cares of public life and the persistency of Republican office seekers combined have worn the President completely out, and he will leave Washington this week for a few days' rest. By leaving Washington Mr. McKinley may get away from the cares of State, but we doubt very much the possibility of finding a place so secluded that he will be free from the molestation of the pie hunting crowd. The hungry horde is growing fiercer every day.

ST. LOUIS Tuesday elected Henry Ziegenhein, the Republican nominee for Mayor, by a majority of six thousand votes over Harrison and Meriwether, the two Democratic candidates. Ziegenhein's vote was about 48,000; Harrison, 24,000; Meriwether, 18,000. The entire Republican ticket was elected. Ziegenhein is a representative of the very worst element in St. Louis politics, and his election means that the hoodlums and corruptionists will have everything their own way in St. Louis during the next four years. If they don't wreck the municipality it will be because they can't. But Uncle Henry and the "boys" will have a time!

From Goodwater.

Ed. Register—The past month was noted throughout this section for being less windy, but more rainy than March usually is. It began and ended with rainy weather. Three freshets occurred here during March—one on the 4th, another on the 9th and the third on the night of the 31st. As a natural consequence considerable damage was done to roads and fields, especially along the water courses.

Our mails were very irregular during and after the freshets—owing to local high waters and to washouts on railroads.

The following are among the occurrences of the past month hereabouts:

Mrs. Susan D. Colman and Miss Edie Love, of Belgrade, visited relatives in this neighborhood.

Mr. W. L. Crocker has returned to his home in Montana.

Mr. Joseph Abbott went to the vicinity of Caledonia recently on business.

Wyatt King, of near Red Point, was in this neighborhood last week.

Wm. Hornbeck and family have moved to the Thomas farm near Graniteville.

Wm. Helms and family have moved into the Wyatt King house (now owned by J. M. Lucas,) at Crocker's Mill, instead of going to Dallas county, as they intended to do.

J. M. Williams and family have moved to the Sumpter farm near Burgundy, instead of moving to Flat River, as was reported.

Messrs. John and Ed. Johnson, of near Belgrade came out here on business on the 6th inst.

Three men—two of them claiming to be "Dietz Bros., of St. Louis"—passed some time in this community recently. They obtained the job of painting R. C. Crocker's house and gave two entertainments at our school house. Slight-of-hand performances and negro minstrel songs constituted the principal exercises, and it is said the attendance was good. Shortly afterwards they went east from here.

One of F. M. Mayberry's little children swallowed a marble recently. As it lodged too far down its throat to enable the child to cough it up, the marble had to be pushed down into its stomach. Though the child suffered intensely and was considered to be in a critical condition for some time, it happily recovered from all the effects of the accident soon afterwards.

Married, at Tolu, Mo., on Sunday, March 14th, 1897, by Rev. Mr. M. Alcorn, Mr. Jas. H. Wood to Miss Edie Bays. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wood, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bays, of Tolu. May joy, peace and prosperity attend the young couple throughout the remainder of their lives.

Jas. H. Alcorn and family have moved to near Francis, Pulaski county, Mo., and Mr. John Black and wife to near Red Point.

Pleasant Grove Church, near Tolu, is now ready for services, the first of which are intended to be held there next Sunday, April 4th.

On the 18th inst., Mr. "Jack" Adams of near Belgrade, narrowly escaped drowning. The heavy rains just before that date had swollen the creek and the ford at the Alcorn place was washed out until it was unsafe. Mr. Adams tried to cross there and either fell off or was washed off his horse. He was rendered practically helpless by the heavy current he wore. Mr. Wm. Carl's children happened to be near, and the eldest of them, Otis Carl, grasped the man, but was not strong enough to extricate him from his perilous position; but the little fellow pluckily held on until Mr. Carl was notified and rescued Mr. Adams.

Master Fred Cole, of near Quaker, visited his sister, Mrs. J. M. Lucas, and other relatives hereabouts recently.

Considerable plowing has been done in this locality, and if the weather is favorable, corn-planting will soon begin.

There has been much sickness in this vicinity during the past month; La Grippe, whooping cough and severe colds were the principal ailments.

March 31st, 1897. R. E.

Roselle Items.

Ed. Register—It still continues to rain.

We are glad to hear of James Martin being on the improve.

Mr. John Polk, of Doe Rue, Mo., visited relatives at this place last week.

There was quite a number of folks from this place, attended church at the Ashlock school house Sunday.

Mr. Elgie Clure is seen quite often at the widow Henson's. What is the attraction, Lige?

Linnie Johnson visited friends and relatives at Arcadia last week.

Mrs. J. C. Downs, and daughter, Martha, are visiting relatives in Bismarck.

ST. LOUIS Tuesday elected Henry Ziegenhein, the Republican nominee for Mayor, by a majority of six thousand votes over Harrison and Meriwether, the two Democratic candidates. Ziegenhein's vote was about 48,000; Harrison, 24,000; Meriwether, 18,000. The entire Republican ticket was elected. Ziegenhein is a representative of the very worst element in St. Louis politics, and his election means that the hoodlums and corruptionists will have everything their own way in St. Louis during the next four years. If they don't wreck the municipality it will be because they can't. But Uncle Henry and the "boys" will have a time!
